A word is defined as that which begins or ends with a hyphen, slash or space (except prefixes). For example: “Not-for-profit organization” counts as four words. “Non-profit organization” counts as two words because “non” is a prefix.

Any number counts as a word. A full telephone number counts as one word, as does an email address. Abbreviations count as one word. Punctuation marks do not count as words.

GENERAL AD POLICIES

In an effort to strike the fine balance between supporting an open marketplace of ideas and safeguarding USC’s Principles of Community, the Daily Trojan has established the following guidelines:

The primary purpose of accepting advertising in the Daily Trojan is to inform the USC community about products, services, and events in which members of the community may reasonably have an interest. Events can take any number of forms, including but not limited to: classes, workshops, forums, performances, activities, vigils, protests, parades, celebrations, voter registration, field trips, and seminars.

The channel for expression of viewpoints, including those of political or religious nature, is through letters to the editor, opinion columns, or other editorial content.

The newspaper reserves the right to determine what it deems the primary purpose of any ad and act accordingly. Furthermore, the Daily Trojan will not publish advertising that it deems inflammatory in nature or otherwise inconsistent with its general advertising policies.

The intention of these guidelines is not to obstruct or censor ideas, but rather to redirect the discussion of viewpoints to the community itself, where edifying dialogue can foster a better understanding of divergent opinions. We hope these guidelines will engender a greater sense of community at USC and encourage the intellectual, emotional and moral growth of its individuals.

The Daily Trojan abides by all applicable state and federal regulations governing advertising. Additionally, the Daily Trojan adheres to the following policies with regard to advertising:

ADVERTISING NOT ACCEPTED: The Daily Trojan will not accept advertising for tobacco, liquor, beer, wine, gambling, term paper sales, editing services, writing services, research assistance services, 900 telephone numbers or for models to pose semi-clad or undressed (except for art classes). It reserves the right to refuse advertising that is believed to be in poor taste or judgment; that is ambiguously or deceptively worded or portrayed, making the product or service unclear or open to misrepresentation; that advertises illegal organizations or activities; that maligns identifiable persons, races, religions, or professions; that is not accurate or truthful; or that is otherwise determined unacceptable by the publisher.

MAIL ORDER: Mail order advertisers must supply the Daily Trojan with samples of the products and details of the services to be advertised. This requirement also applies to ads that ask the interested reader to call or write for information. A mail order ad with a post office box address must also include the legal name under which business is transacted and the complete street address from which business is actually conducted.

REFUNDS AND CREDITS: Claims alleging real damages because of an error in an ad must be made not more than seven days after the first publication of the ad. Liability to the Daily Trojan shall not exceed the cost of the ad in which the error occurred, and the refund or credit will be given for the first incorrect insertion only. A credit balance must be used within the semester that it is registered. The Daily Trojan will not be responsible for copy changes made by telephone.

CANCELLATIONS: To be eligible for refund, an ad must be canceled three working days before the first scheduled date of insertion. Phone cancellations must be followed by written verification including person spoken to, on what date, and ads and dates being canceled.

IDENTIFICATION: All advertising must carry identification of the sponsor or sponsoring organizations.

PLACEMENT: The Daily Trojan cannot guarantee the position of any ad within the newspaper, nor in the Daily Trojan Online.

STYLE: The Daily Trojan cannot guarantee the position of any ad within the newspaper, nor in the Daily Trojan Online.

INSERTS: No preprinted manually inserted sheets of information (flyers, advertisements, or any other information message sheets) are allowed inside the pages of the Daily Trojan.

ONLINE UPTIME: While the Daily Trojan and its online publishing partners make every effort to keep the Daily Trojan Online available at all times, the Daily Trojan will not be responsible for any interruptions in the website’s availability.
DISPLAY ADVERTISING 2014-15

Display ads (those in the main body of the newspaper) are measured and sold in a publishing unit called a column inch, which is 1\(\frac{1}{2}\) inches (one column) wide and one inch high (see the actual-size image to the left). The width of an advertisement must always be in whole column increments. Ads can be customized to fit a variety of sizes; the most popular sizes are illustrated below.

These prices are for one run date in black and white only. Discounts apply after 39 column inches.

Every day, dailytrojan.com serves thousands of students, faculty, parents, alumni and USC fans. The website also offers archives, daily email subscriptions, and breaking news. Ads are sold by impressions in two sizes: the large box and the banner ad, both of which are displayed prominently on the Web site (see graphics below for positioning). Text link ads are text-only ads that appear at the very bottom of each page.

What are impressions?
An impression is when someone views a Web page with your ad on it. This is not the same as a click-through. We get 5,000 to 10,000 page views a day. The heavier the traffic, the more people will see your ad and the quicker it will meet its impressions goal.

How does ad rotation work?
In any slot, there can be multiple ads running. This creates variety as readers navigate the website. Other ads in your slot will not reduce your impression count but will slow down (and extend) the length of your campaign.

What ad formats do you accept?
We prefer static ads optimized for the Web as GIF files under 100 KB. We can work with rich media but need extra time to test these ads.

Can I choose which pages I want?
All ads are ROS (“run of site”) meaning they appear on and rotate through all of our pages for maximum exposure.
