The New York Times Crossword

Edited by Will Shortz No. 0318

When this puzzle is done, the answers will include a familiar series of 38-Across (minus the middle square). Connect the squares of this series in order with a line, starting with the circled square. The resulting image will be a pair of 38-Across (with the middle square). In addition, the clues all share a feature that provides an additional hint to the puzzle's theme.
