Support Congressional Anti-Communist Committee
Chairman Gallagher's strong condemnation of the CCP's transnational aggression

The United States Congressional Anti-Communist Committee made public community actions for the first time. Mr. Mike Gallagher, Chairman of the newly established Anti-Communist Committee of the US Congress, and members will hold an event in Chinatown, Manhattan, condemning the CCP's transnational violations and endangering the security of the United States. The event will be held at 10 a.m. on this Saturday in front of the former site of the Changle Fujian Association, which was the CCP Overseas Police Station (already closed) in New York.

Many thanks to U.S. House of Representative Mr. Mike Gallagher for speaking out for all of us who are persecuted by the tyranny of the CCP. Many organizations in Los Angeles will join to support Chairman Gallagher's protest against the CCP's transnational crimes and activities to defend the security of the United States.

Gathering date: February 25, 2023 (Saturday)

Assembly time: 3:00-5:00 (afternoon)

Assembly location: In front of the Chinese Consulate in Los Angeles
